We are informed by the manager of the Crystal theatre that beginning Sunday, August 15, there will be an entire change of service. The films will be the very latest patented stuff, many of them hand colored, and a goodly mixture of the best comedy. On account of a misunderstanding, the show was forced to open with old films of low grade. Entire change of program tonight, and a real live treat tomorrow evening and night. Music by Miss Stella Cayot.
